

TOS+H EXPO 2020 at new Exhibition Centre in Istanbul

Most important trade fair for occupational safety and health in Turkey expects approx. 100 exhibitors +++ Messe Düsseldorf organises German and international participations +++ International congress discusses current themes and challenges regarding safe and healthy workplace design

In Istanbul TOS+H EXPO continues its positive development as the most important regional event for occupational safety and health from 3 to 6 May 2020. Demand for exhibition space is high because safety and health at work are as important as ever for Turkish companies. The trade fair and congress benefit from a strong OSH legislation with far-reaching safety provisions that impact all sectors of Turkish industry, education and the mining sector. This year some 95,000 new jobs are to be created by investment in occupational health and safety by the Ministry for Industry and Technology.

For companies from Europe and overseas participation in TOS+H EXPO is an interesting gateway to the markets in South Eastern Europe and Asia. Visitors are in for a versatile line-up of ranges that cover all areas of prevention – from personal protective equipment and corporate health management to workplace design. This year's top themes for exhibitors are sustainability as a basis for occupational safety and health as well as the digitalisation of work.

Messe Düsseldorf, the organiser of the world's leading Trade Fair for Safety, Security and Health at Work A+A, and its local partner Tezulas Fuar will be staging the trade fair at the new and centrally located ICC – Istanbul Congress Center for the first time now. Exhibitor registrations are well underway, over 70% of the total exhibition space has already been booked.
